

BASEBALL COMMISSION MEETS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Changes in Rules and Regulations Will Be Submitted by Committee Appointed at Last Session.

AWARD SCHWARZSCHILD CUP

Most Valuable Player to His Club Last Season Will Receive Trophy as Reward for Good Work—Line-Up of Two Leagues to Be Selected.

The meeting of the Amateur Baseball Commission, which was scheduled to meet Tuesday night at the National State and City Bank, has been postponed until Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. President Hill is anxious that all members of the commission be present at this meeting, as matters of importance will be discussed.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to make changes in the rules and regulations is expected to make their report, and as there will be several changes of importance, it is hoped that the entire commission will be present, so that these changes will be thoroughly understood before they are adopted.

It is also expected that the Schwarzchild Brothers trophy, offered for the player proving himself most valuable to his team, will be awarded at this meeting. As the committee, composed of Harry Tucker, Jr., J. H. Black and C. Pollard, have been hard at work for the past two weeks getting together the desired information.

A joint meeting of the Commercial and Old Dominion Leagues will be held tomorrow night at the Church City Association clubhouse. The schedule for the season will be adopted, and other important matters will come before the managers.

All are urged to be present, and any one interested in this league will be welcomed.

Substitutions—For Randolph-Macon, Water for Lee, Ford for Sheffey, Hall for Landon, Scott for Hall, Brittingham for Scott, for Hampden-Sidney, Carrington for Bryan. Time, twenty minute halves. Referee, Mr. Salassa, Lynchburg Young Men's Christian Association.

West End Gun Club Members Hold Impromptu Match—Louis Rueger Wins in Score of 92 Per Cent.

Thirteen men faced the traps at the West End Gun Club at an impromptu shoot yesterday afternoon. The shooting was of an experimental nature, the men testing out new guns and loads preparatory to getting in shape for the Fred Gilbert cup shoot, which will be held between the 15th and 20th of March.

VIRGINIA MAY ADOPT NO FRESHMEN RULE

Matter Now in the Hands of Professors Lambeth, Lefevre, Watts, Echols and Doble for Attention.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., February 13.—The General Athletic Association board of the University of Virginia has come out unanimously in favor of the "no freshman" rule, and a resolution to this effect has been drawn up for presentation to the faculty committee on athletics at its next meeting.

If this ruling goes into effect, no first-year man at the university, whatever his previous athletic record may have been, will be allowed to play on the university football and baseball teams.

The resolution will be laid before Professor Lefevre, Lambeth, Watts, Echols and Doble at their meeting, and on their approval will be presented at the next meeting of the entire faculty, whose ruling in these cases is final.

As a result of the new ruling, if it goes into effect, a system of freshman teams will be evolved to offset the lack of opportunity offered new men on the varsities. These teams will be coached exclusively to new men, and will arrange schedules of their own with similar teams of the universities, which compose the all-State university conference, formed in Columbia, S. C., January 31, and with such support as the "freshman" rule. Some fears have been expressed as to the scantiness of material for such a team, but it has been pointed out that the new registrations every year are considerably in excess of 300, including in them much good material which, through its rawness, is overlooked in the exhaustive picking of the varsity.

One look for it to be a positive benefit to the football branch, said Rice Warren. "The institution of freshman teams means that more talent can be taken care of and more care devoted to its development than ever before. We have a good ground for them in the lower field."

As for the loss of men to the varsity,

I think there is little to fear in that respect. The number of men making their letter in their first year here is remarkably small. The loss in that direction will be more than compensated by the gain in carefully coached, seasoned and educated material, some of which would undoubtedly have been overlooked, in spite of all the efforts of the coach in the ordinary run of events, which we shall obtain from the thoroughly trained team of first-year men.

In case the ruling goes through, it will not take effect formally until 1916.

GENERALS' FOOTBALL SCHEDULE A HARD ONE

Nine Games Arranged by Manager McDougle—Cornell, Indiana University and West Virginia Wesleyan.

LEXINGTON, VA., February 13.—The most pretentious and hard schedule ever arranged for a Washington and Lee football team is that mapped out and made public to-night by Manager Boreman McDougle, of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you can find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, carpenter, 36-A Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

last year—are carded for the Generals. Out three of these contests are with teams that a few seasons ago would not have offered the local collegians places on their schedules. The Lexingtonians, unbeaten last year and with a record of only two reverses in the last three seasons, journey to meet Cornell, to Indianapolis, Ind., on October 30, to meet Indiana University, and to Lynchburg, Va., on October 2, to meet West Virginia Wesleyan.

Other games on foreign fields are those with Virginia Polytechnic Institute in Roanoke, Va., and with Agricultural and Mechanical of North Carolina in Norfolk. Three games will be played in Lexington.

Washington and Lee's footballists will be coached next fall, as they were last year, by Walter B. Elcock, Dartmouth, 1910, and an All-American tackle in his time.

The Generals' schedule follows:

September 25—Davidson, at Lexington, Va.
October 2—West Virginia Wesleyan, at Lynchburg, Va.
October 9—Marshall, at Lexington, Va.
October 16—Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Roanoke, Va.
October 23—West Virginia, at Charlottesville, Va.
October 30—Indiana, at Indianapolis, Ind.
November 6—Roanoke, at Lexington, Va.
November 13—Cornell, at Ithaca, N. Y.
November 23—Agricultural and Mechanical of North Carolina, at Norfolk, Va.

O'DONNELL AND ALLEY TO RACE AT INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, February 13.—Eddie O'Donnell and Tom Alley, two of the younger, meteoric generation of American racing drivers, have been entered in the next Indianapolis 500-mile sweepstakes at the wheel of two Duesenbergs.

Fred Duesenberg, building of the machines, states a third entry will probably be made before the first of May.

Both O'Donnell and Alley have been climbing fast the last few months, the former taking a third in the recent Corona road race at the terrific speed of 57.4 miles an hour, and the latter annexing the world's 100-mile circular dirt track record at Milwaukee last fall with an average of 65.57. Alley closed the last mile and a half of this contest on three tires, taking frightful risks all the way.

In size the Duesenbergs will not be handicapped this year, as formerly, their cubic displacement being 20

FRIEND OF JUDGE JACKSON KNEW HE WAS TO RESIGN

Question as to Part Taken by Judge Dayton in Forcing Action Not Definitely Settled.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., February 13.—The circumstances attending the resignation of the late John J. Jackson from the bench as Federal District Judge in the Northern District of West Virginia were detailed to-day in testimony before the congressional committee investigating the official conduct of Judge A. G. Dayton, of the same court.

John T. McGraw, Democratic national committeeman for West Virginia, testified he had been among Judge Jackson's personal friends, and knew he intended to resign. John H. Holt, an attorney, refused to say positively in testimony before the congressional committee investigating the official conduct of Judge A. G. Dayton, of the same court.

Questions put to George W. Johnson, also an attorney, concerning a trip to Washington, D. C., the time Judge Jackson resigned, brought out nothing concerning the latter's determination to leave the bench. Johnson, who had been referee in bankruptcy, was questioned concerning Judge Dayton's conduct toward attorneys in his court, and declared that so harshly had Judge Dayton spoken and so severe had been his criticism that the matter was brought to the attention of the bar association, representatives of which conferred with Judge Dayton.

In answer to another question, Johnson said Judge Dayton had made remarks about John T. McGraw, but said they were not nearly so harsh as had been reported.
